A real school community. ”

REAL ENGLISH. REAL LIFE. A BRIGHTER YOU.

A friendly, personal school in the heart of Kerry

At Killarney School of English, you are more than just a student. We are a small, family-run school with big experience, offering a personal and supportive environment where you can improve your English, work, and experience real Irish life.

Our school is based in a beautiful part of Ireland, surrounded by mountains, lakes and friendly people. You will study in small groups, receive individual support, and be part of a warm, international community.

KILLARNEY SCHOOL OF ENGLISH, KILLARNEY

A great location to live and learn

Our school is just a short walk from Killarney town centre, with everything you need close by – shops, cafés, restaurants, and stunning outdoor spaces.

It's the perfect place to study English, make new friends, work and explore Ireland.

1 – 6 students per class

- Personal attention
- Faster progress
- A friendly learning environment
- Communicative and practical lessons

ENGLISH YOU CAN USE AT WORK - EVERY DAY

Killarney is one of Ireland's best-known tourism destinations. Hotels, restaurants, cafés, pubs, shops and visitor attractions create regular employment opportunities, especially during the main tourism season. A job is never guaranteed - but Killarney gives eligible students a strong environment in which to look.

WE HELP YOU PREPARE

- CV help
- Suitable local vacancies
- Practical advice
- Monthly job-support clinics

JOBS FOR DIFFERENT LEVELS

- Housekeeping, kitchen and support roles can suit developing English
- Customer-facing jobs usually require stronger spoken English

USE ENGLISH OUTSIDE CLASS

- Use English with Irish and international colleagues
- Speak and listen every day
- Build confidence in real situations

STAMP 2 WORK RIGHTS

Eligible students with Stamp 2 permission may currently work up to 20 hours per week during term and up to 40 hours per week during the official holiday periods.

Employment depends on vacancies, English level, experience and employer requirements.

Imagine finishing class and being minutes from lakes, mountains, woodland and waterfalls. Killarney School of English is beside Killarney National Park - Ireland's first National Park, created in 1932 and now a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.

Killarney is not just scenery. It is a lively tourism town with cafés, restaurants, pubs, live music, festivals, sports clubs and a large international workforce. You can hike, cycle or explore Kerry - and still meet your friends in town that evening.

YOUR CLASSROOM IS SMALL. YOUR BACK GARDEN IS 26,000 ACRES.

Mountains • lakes • woodland • waterfalls • historic sites • walking and cycling routes

DO YOU WANT TO SPEND YOUR IRISH EXPERIENCE IN A BIG CITY OR IN A SMALL TOWN?

Killarney offers a very different way to study and work in Ireland: smaller scale, easier access to nature, a more personal school environment and lower estimated day-to-day living costs than Dublin.

DUBLIN

Large international city

Urban lifestyle

Higher estimated weekly living costs

Greater reliance on public transport

Typically larger language schools

Large student population

KILLARNEY

Small Irish town

National Park and outdoor lifestyle

Lower estimated weekly living costs

Most daily journeys can be walked or cycled

Small independent family school

Personal contact and individual support

CURRENT LIVING-COST ESTIMATE

€285 / week

Killarney / Rest of Ireland
